

ERIC S. JONES is a partner at the firm of Tavares & Jones, LLC.

Mr. Jones has been practicing workers' compensation law before the State Board of Workers' Compensation since 1992. His practice consists of representation of all parties in the workers' compensation system and he is a Registered Mediator. Mr. Jones received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science, Sociology, and Criminal Justice from the University of Richmond in 1989 where he was a University Scholar. Thereafter, he received his law degree from Emory University School of Law in 1992. Mr. Jones carries a Preeminent AV rating from Martindale-Hubbell which signifies the highest level of professional excellence. Mr. Jones is a member of the Advisory Council's Public Education Committee and is a member of the American Bar Association and the State Bar of Georgia. Mr. Jones serves on the Board of Directors for a Non-Profit Community Development Organization in Atlanta and volunteers for a Foundation he helped found benefitting a local public school.

He has two daughters in high school who keep him grounded.